

LAST EDITION

ONE CENT

FRANK WILL NOT HANG—TO SERVE LIFE TERM
EXPECT CONFESSION AT JOLIET PEN
TRUSTIES UNDERGO A STIFF QUESTIONING

THE DAY BOOK

An Adless Newspaper, Daily Except Sunday

VOL. 4, NO. 225

Chicago, Monday, June 21, 1915

398

WHY ROB PHONE USERS FOR ARMOUR'S GAIN?

Job On to Take $6,000,000 From Pockets of the People and Give It to the Multi-millionaire Boss of the Stockyards.

BY N. D. COCHRAN

The Armour interests, principal owners of the bonds of the Automatic phone company, have set the Invisible Government in Chicago at work in an effort to force council to make Armour and his pals a present of something like SIX MILLION DOLLARS.

The Daily News rushes to the rescue today with an editorial ordering council not to rob poor Ogden Armour by enforcing the forfeiture clause of the Automatic franchise.

"The city should stand prepared now, as in the past,